Dean's Message 院長的話

Dear prospective student,

Since its establishment in 1963, CUHK Arts has dedicated itself to the integration of East and West, tradition and modernity, and to the advancement of humanistic scholarship and learning. We now support the largest and most comprehensive group of academic disciplines in the humanities among the tertiary educational institutions in Hong Kong. And we have a world-class teaching and research staff.

Our goal is to prepare our students as creative and rigorous learners, and as empathetic and responsible citizens of society. We provide a multidimensional learning environment and many scholarships, both to reward excellence and to support students with financial needs.

Through systematic study in the classroom, a rich array of extra-curricular activities, off-campus and overseas learning and exchange programmes, we encourage our students to broaden their intellectual horizon, to enhance their foreign language proficiency, and to gain new life experiences.

I believe you will find an ideal environment for your future study in the Faculty of Arts. You will gain insight into our fast-changing world and acquire new skills and new languages. You will discover a new self. I look forward to welcoming you as a new member of our diverse and inclusive learning community.

Professor Max Xiaobing Tang
