

Forum Program

Mar 1, Friday

08:00 – 09:00 Registration (YIA 403)

09:00 – 09:30 Opening Ceremony (YIA 403)

09:30 – 10:15 Coffee Break (YIA 2/F)

10:30 – 12:15 Concurrent Panel Session A

A1 – Anthropology and the Margins: Boundaries Between Ethnography and Practice
Discussant: Prof. Leilah VEVAINA	Venue: YIA 404
Boundaries as Epistemic Space: Intersectionality and Positionality in Ethnographic Fieldwork Yicheng CHEN
"Innovation unleashed:" negotiating the boundaries of the urban laboratory Maria RYABOVA
The Review and Prospect of Anthropology Research on Chinese Border Since the 21st Century Yini WANG
On Ethnographic Impasse Xinche ZHENG

A2 – COVID-19 and Its Impact on Reshaping Boundaries
Discussant: Dr. Wyman TANG	Venue: YIA 408
Taped Hong Kong: A Visual Cultural Study of Hong Kong City Space during Covid Pandemic Xiaoran QI
Confessions of "social phobia": the social practice of the youth in the post-COVID era Hui WANG
Post-COVID and Pet Events: Contradictions Among Animals, Pet Owners, and Non-Pet Owners in China Maria WATANABE
Reproducing the Neoliberal Subjectivity by Building a Community — A Case study of a Coffee Shop in Shenzhen Yutong WEI

12:30 – 13:45 Lunch at Chung Chi Student Canteen (Covered by the Forum)

14:00 – 15:45 Panel Session B

B1 – Boundaries in Everyday Life I: Bodies and Borders
Discussant: Prof. Chaoxiong ZHANG	Venue: YIA 404
Exploring the construction of bathing as a care work in elderly nursing homes: findings of an ethnographic study in Hong Kong Caroline DU
Wearing Prosthesis in Urban China: An Ethnography on How People with Disabilities Enact Normalcy Chenchen MA
Making and Re-making the Boundary of Body and Self: Voices from Female Youths with Eating Disorders in Urban China Jinghan MA
Medicalizing borders, and what happens next: How did COVID-19 reshape the Yunnan border? Zhuo NIU
Dining in Between: Tanzanian and East African Immigrants in Guangzhou, China - Case Study Centred at Bantu Kitchen in The Post-COVID Era Ziyi YAN

15:45 – 16:15 Coffee Break (YIA 2/F)

16:30 – 18:00 Concurrent Panel Session C

C1 – Boundaries in Everyday Life II: People and Communities
Discussant: Prof. Andrew KIPNIS	Venue: YIA 404
The Ethnic Boundaries within a "Imagined Community" – A Case Study in Xun Dian County from the Perspective of linguistic landscape Qinger JIANG
A Tale of Uncertainty – An ethnographic study of the "shifting" landscape of a Chinese village Youping NIE
Blurring Distinction: A New Practice between Newcomer Elite and Local Residents in Shuanglang Ya SHU
Fading Stigma Around Funeral Directors in China Xiaoting TANG

C2 – Boundaries in Everyday Life III: Liminalities and Limits

Discussant: Prof. Gordon Mathews

Venue: YIA 408

Living Microcosms Within a Dead Community: Looking at the Displaced Occupants Inside the Cebu Chinese Cemetery

Chelsea Kaye MARA

Pottery Making in Canduaao Occidental, Valencia, Bohol: A Resilient Cultural Industry in Central

Rhayan MELENDRES

Boundaries for Pornography: Ambiguity, Demarcation, and Enjoyment

Shitong SUN

Shuttering Temporalities: Photopoetry Unveils Immigrant Liminal Spaces in Hong Kong

Kaiyun ZHENG

18:30 Meet-up for Shuttle Bus to Fo Tan for self-paid Hong Kong style dinner at Dai Pai Dong

Mar 2, Saturday

10:30 – 11:45 Concurrent Panel Session D (Online)

D1 – Boundaries in Everyday Life IV: Negotiating and Mediating Identity

Discussant: Prof. Venera R. KHALIKOVA

Online

Flavours of Home: Negotiating Boundaries of Food and Identity among Hong Kong migrants in the UK

Bryan CHOI

Eliminating it in the construction of ethnic boundary? Ethnic Identity in the Gorkha Nationalist Movement in Northeast India — Based on Anthropological Fieldwork in Darjeeling, India

Zheng JIANG

From Immobility to Mobility? How African Merchant Migrants in China Navigate Transnational Mobility amidst the Pandemic

Yanxuan LU

Peranakan Crossing Ethnic Boundaries between Malay and Chinese: A Case Study of Peranakan Community in Terengganu, Malaysia

Shi YUTAO

D2 – Boundaries Beyond the Human

Discussant: Prof. LAM Weng Cheong

Online

Roaming in the field: Negotiating the Boundaries with our Surroundings through fence building in Nam Chung, Hong Kong

Wai Yan LEUNG

Making Home in Historical Architecture of the West London: Materiality, Value and Border

Qingyang XIE

Bounded kinship, unbounded care: An ethnographic study of Chinese elders' engagement with legal tools at late-life stage

Fei YUAN

14:00 – 15:30 Concurrent Panel Session E

E1 – Fluidity of Boundary: Sex and Gender

Discussant: Dr. Janet PANG Ka Wei

Venue: YIA 404 & Online

An Investigation into the Homogeneity of Characters in Otome Games and their Implications on Gender Discourse

Man Sze HUNG

Who can be Intersex? A reflection on biological-based identities

Wing Tong LAM

Solidarity in Trauma: Identity-making of Transgender in Post-socialist China

Tianmeng LAN

Authority, Gender and Identity: Negotiation of gender boundaries among female managers of university student government

Xiaoxiao SUN

E2 – Online and Onscreen: Mediated Boundaries

Discussant: Dr. Tim ROSENKRANZ

Venue: YIA 408 & Online

Crossing Interface: National Identity Simulation in Chinese Tribute Games

Ningxi GUO

Exploring the Diaspora of Chaoxianzu in Korea and the Absence of Group Voices in Films Involving Chaoxianzu – an Analysis Based on Case Narrative Interviews

Haochen LIU

'Sis With All Due Respect': Equality, Independence and Self-moralization in Instrumental Online socialization

Pei LIU

Triple Articulation: Study on Community Wechat Groups under Public Health Emergencies

Jiejing TANG

15:30 – 16:15 Coffee Break (YIA 2/F)

16:30 – 18:30 Keynote Address by Prof. Tim INGOLD (Online session at YIA 403)
Closing Ceremony

Mar 3, Sunday

12:00 – 14:00 Field Trip at Tai Kwun, Central